【Election】

<Case 1> : (Proposed by Long Bon International Co., Ltd. and Everwin Investment Co., Ltd.)

Description: Re-election of nine directors (including three independent directors).

Explanation:

1. Seven parties, including Long Bon International Co., Ltd. (hereinafter "Long Bon"), convened an extraordinary shareholders' meeting of Taisun Enterprise Co., Ltd. (hereinafter "Taisun") on 31 May 2023 to re-elect directors and independent directors. Claiming that Long Bon failed to submit a filing about the purpose of a merger/acquisition in accordance with Paragraph 14, Article 27 of the Business Mergers and Acquisitions Act, did not enjoy the voting rights for its stake in excess of 10%, and violated the law in the manner of the resolution of the above-mentioned shareholder's meeting, Jingxun Investment Industrial Co., Ltd. (hereinafter "Jingxun") petitioned the Intellectual Property and Commercial Court (hereinafter the "Commercial Court") to revoke the resolution of the extraordinary shareholders' meeting of 31 May 2023. Jingxun's complaint was rejected by the Commercial Court. The decision was overturned and the case was returned to the Commercial Court by Supreme Court Judgment 2024 Tai-Shang-Zi No. 1851. The retrial by the Commercial Court is pending.
2. Long Bon held Taisun shares for the purpose of long-term investment in Taisun and submitted a filing in accordance with applicable laws. To ensure stability in Taisun's internal operations and external transactions, and further solidify Long Bon's operating right over Taisun, a filing for the relevant change in relation to the purpose of the acquisition of shares was submitted in respect of the Supreme Court's interpretation about the filing under Paragraph 14, Article 27 of the Business Mergers and Acquisitions Act in Civil Case Judgment 2024 Tai-Shang-Zi No. 1851. An extraordinary shareholders' meeting was also convened in accordance with Article 173-1 of the Company Act for the full re-election of directors to ensure Taisun's long-term operation and stable development.
3. Nine directors should be re-elected (including three independent directors), and they should start their term from December 10, 2025 to December 9, 2028 immediately following election.
4. According to Article 192-1 of the Company Act and Article 19 of Taisun's Articles of Association, this re-election will be held under the candidate nomination system. An extraordinary shareholders' meeting shall elect the directors from the list of director candidates. The candidate list is below.

Parliamentary Procedures for Shareholders' Meeting

Date of amendment: 2021/8/18

I. The parliamentary procedure for the convention of the Shareholders' Meeting shall be governed by this procedure unless the law or the Articles of Incorporation provide otherwise.

II. Shareholders, proxies appointed by shareholders, or parties requesting for power of attorney for attending a Shareholders' Meeting should present the attendance pass, sign-in card issued by the Company or other certification documents for attendance in order to attend the Shareholders' Meeting, and must bring along the identification documents for confirmation of identity. shareholders attending the session should present their sign-in card in lieu of signing in. The number of representatives of government or institutional shareholders shall be limited to the number of Directors (including Independent Directors) of the current term of the Board. Each institutional shareholder may appoint only one representative to attend the Shareholders' Meeting.

III. The convention of the Shareholders' Meeting of the Company shall be called by the Board unless the law provides otherwise. If it is the Board that calls for the convention of the Shareholders' Meeting, the Chairman shall act as the presiding officer. In the absence of the Chairman due to leave or other reasons, the Vice Chairman shall act as the presiding officer on behalf of the Chairman. In the absence of both the Chairman or the Vice Chairman due to leave or other reasons, the Chairman shall appoint one Director to act as the presiding officer. If the Chairman did not appoint a proxy, the Directors shall nominate one among themselves to act as the presiding officer. If a Director acts as proxy on behalf of and in the name of the Chairman, such Director must be in office for at least 6 months and have a good understanding of the financial position and operation of the Company. The same principle applies to representatives of Institutional Directors. Where an entitled third party beyond the Board may call for the convention of the Shareholders' Meeting, such third party shall act as the presiding officer. If there are more than 2 parties calling for the convention, they shall nominate one among themselves to act as the presiding officer.

IV. The Company may appoint the retained lawyers, certified public CPA or related personnel to attend the Shareholders' Meeting as observers.

V. The Company shall track the entire process from the time shareholders start to register for presence to the Shareholders' Meeting, the meeting is in session, and counting of the votes cast by shareholders on record by voice recording and videotaping without pause. The aforementioned voice record and videotaped materials shall be kept for at least 1 year. If legal proceedings are instated pursuant to Article 189 of the Company Act, the aforementioned materials shall be kept until the conclusion of the legal proceedings.

VI. The attendance of shareholders to the Shareholders' Meeting shall be based on the quantity of shares being represented. The quantity of shares being represented in the Shareholders' Meeting shall be based on the sign-in card submitted by the shareholders in session plus the votes cast under the power of attorney or electronic mean. The chair shall call the meeting to order at the appointed meeting time and announce the information relating to the number of non-voting shares and the number of attending shares at the same time. If the presence of shareholders cannot represent more than half of the outstanding shares at that point of time, the presiding officer shall announce to postpone the session for twice only. Each duration of delay shall not be more than 1 hour. If the session was postponed twice with the presence of shareholders representing less than 1/3 of the outstanding shares, the presiding officer shall announce to defer the session.

If the session was postponed twice under the preceding paragraph with the presence of shareholders representing less than 1/3 of the outstanding shares, the Shareholders' Meeting may proceed to provisional resolution pursuant to Paragraph 1 in Article 175 of the Company Act, and inform all shareholders of the provisional resolution for the convention of the Shareholders' Meeting within one month thereafter. If the presence of additional shareholders in the Shareholders' Meeting could represent more than half of the outstanding shares before the adjournment of the session, the presiding officer may refer the provisional resolutions to the Shareholders Meeting for a new round of voting pursuant to Article 174 of the Company Act.

VII. If it is the Board that calls for the convention of the Shareholders' Meeting, the Board shall prepare the agenda and proceed in accordance with the agenda. The motions contained in the agenda shall be referred to voting for decision. The agenda cannot be changed without the resolution of the Shareholders' Meeting. If an entitled third party beyond the Board calls for the convening of the Shareholders' Meeting, the rules of the preceding paragraph shall also be applicable. Before the agenda has been fully covered in the procedure (including extemporary motions), the presiding officer cannot announce the adjournment of the session without the resolution of the Shareholders' Meeting.

VIII. Shareholders in session shall note down the summary of opinion to be expressed, the account number (or attendance pass number) and the account title, on the memo sheet before the expression. The presiding officer shall determine the order of expression of opinions by the shareholders. Shareholders who just expressed their opinions on the memo sheet without verbal expression shall be construed as no expression of opinion. If the content of verbal expression is irrelevant with the content stated in the memo sheet, the content of verbal expression shall prevail. No shareholders may interrupt the presentation of another shareholder unless at the consent of the presiding officer and the shareholder presenting the speech or the presiding officer shall stop the interruption.

IX. The same shareholder may express his/her opinion on the same motion only twice, and may further express opinion on the same motion only at the consent of the presiding officer. Shareholders may have the floor for expression of opinion for up to 5 minutes for each instance. Shareholders who violate the rules in expression of opinion or the opinion so expressed is beyond the scope of the motion will be stopped by the presiding officer.

X. If specific institutional shareholder appoints more than two representatives to the Shareholders' Meeting, only one of the representatives may be appointed to express opinion on the same motion.

XI. After a shareholder has expressed its opinion, the presiding officer may respond personally or appoint designated personnel to respond to the opinion.

XII. Votes cast by the Shareholders' Meeting shall be based on the quantity of shares represented. The shares held by shareholders having no voting right shall not be counted in the total number of issued shares while adopting a resolution at a meeting of shareholders. If a particular motion discussed in the Shareholders' Meeting involves the conflict of interest between shareholders and the Company, the shareholders concerned shall recuse from voting and cannot act as proxy for another shareholder in voting. Except for trust enterprises or stock agencies approved by the competent authority, when a person who acts as the proxy for two or more shareholders, the number of voting power represented by him/her shall not exceed 3% of the total number of voting shares of the company, otherwise, the portion of excessive voting power shall not be counted.

XIII. Shareholders are entitled to one voting right for the holding of each shares except for the holding of restricted shares or shares bearing not votes under Paragraph 2 in Article 179 of the Company Act. The Company should adopt balloting by electronic means and correspondence, and shall specify the availability of these means of balloting in the meeting notice to shareholders.

Shareholders casting votes by electronic means or correspondence shall be deemed present in the Shareholders' Meeting in person. However, balloting by electronic means or correspondence shall be deemed abstention in the voting of extemporary motions or amendment to original motions. Each motion shall be passed by a simple majority of the votes cast by shareholders in session unless the Company Act or the Articles of Incorporation of the Company provide otherwise. If there is an amendment to or substitute version of particular motion, the presiding officer shall combine the amendment and/or the substitute version to the original motion and decide the priority of voting. If the original motion, the amendment to the motion or the substitute version of the original motion is passed, it shall be deemed that with the passing of the motion no further resolution will be required. The presiding officer shall appoint the scrutineers and the tally clerks and the scrutineers must be shareholders at the same time. The results of the balloting shall be announced on the scene and tracked on record.

XIV. Election may also be held in the Shareholders' Meeting, and shall be governed by the rules and regulations of the Company governing elections. The voting result of an election of directors shall be announced on the spot, including the names of those elected as directors, the number of votes they were elected and the list of unsuccessful directors and the number of votes they received. The ballots shall be kept properly for at least one year. If legal proceedings are instated pursuant to Article 189 of the Company Act, the aforementioned materials shall be kept until the conclusion of the legal proceedings.

XV. The resolutions made by the Shareholders' Meeting shall be tracked as minutes of meeting on record, signed or sealed by the presiding officer and circulated to the shareholders within 20 days after the meeting. The production and circulation of the minutes of meeting on record may be done by electronic means or uploaded to MOPS for announcement. The year, month, day, venue, name of presiding officer, method of resolution, the summary of the procedures, and voting result (including the statistics on the votes cast) shall be noted down in the minutes of meeting on record. If an election for Directors was held, disclosed the votes earned by each Director elected to the seat. The record shall be kept within the perpetuity of the Company.

XVI. The Company shall keep statistics on the votes acquired by third parties requesting for votes and votes of the proxies in the standardized format on the day the Shareholders' Meeting is in session, and disclose the detail on the scene. If specific motion for resolution contains information of materiality under law or the requirements of Taiwan Stock Exchange Corporation, the Company shall upload the content to MOPS website by designated deadline.

XVII. The administrative staff shall wear ID or arm badge in the venue of the meeting. The presiding officer may command the prefects or security guard to maintain order of the meeting. In keeping order of the venue, prefects or security guards shall wear arm badge or ID marking the wording of "PREFECT." A sound amplifier may be provided at the venue of the meeting. The presiding officer shall stop shareholders from using loud speaking equipment not prepared by the Company. If specific shareholder violates the procedure of the meeting and defies the corrective action given by the presiding officer, and continue to hinder the normal progress of the meeting regardless of persuasion, the presiding officer shall order the prefects or the security guards to escort such shareholder to leave the scene.

XVIII. The presiding officer may announce for recess when the Shareholders' Meeting is in session. In the event of force majeure, the presiding officer may rule to halt the session, and announce for the continuation of the session at the right time. Pursuant to Article 182 of the Company Act, the Shareholders' Meeting may resolve to postpone or continue the session within 5 days.

XIX. The convention of Shareholders' Meeting may be held in the area where the Company is located or a place convenient for the shareholders to travel to and suitable for holding meeting. In general, the meeting shall be held no earlier than 09:00 or no later than 15:00.

XX. This Procedure shall come into effect for enactment at the resolution of the Shareholders' Meeting. The same procedure is applicable to any amendments thereto.

Regulations Governing the Election of Directors

Date of amendment: 2021/8/18

I. The Company shall hold election of Directors in accordance with the Regulations

II. The election of Directors for the Company shall be based on the nomination of candidates' system and accumulation of registered single votes. The election of Directors and Independent Directors will be held at the same time, and votes for the candidates to the relevant seats will be counted separately.

III. In the election of Directors of the Company, candidates will be elected to the seats of Independent Directors or regular Directors by the number of votes they earned in descending order. If two or more candidates who earned the same number of votes in the election, but there are no further seats available, these candidates shall engage in a lot drawing. The winner in the lot drawing will be entitled to the seat. The presiding officer shall act on behalf of the candidate absent from the election in the lot drawing.

The number of votes in the election as mentioned in preceding paragraph shall be based on the votes cast on the scene of the Shareholders' Meeting and the votes cast through electronic mean.

IV. If particular candidate was elected to the seat of Director and Independent Directors simultaneously, such candidate shall decide to take the seat of either the Director or the Independent Directors at the conclusion of the election, and shall not hold both positions at the same time. The vacancy left behind will be filled by the candidate who earned the next highest number of votes.

The qualification requirement of the Independent Directors of the Company shall be in compliance with the "Regulations Governing Appointment of Independent Directors and Compliance Matters for Public Companies."

The election and appointment of Independent Directors of the Company shall be in compliance with the "Regulations Governing Appointment of Independent Directors and Compliance Matters for Public Companies" and the "Corporate Governance Best Practice Principles for TWSE/TPEx Listed Companies."

The eligibility of Directors of the Company shall be in compliance with the Company Act and other applicable legal rules.

V. The presiding officer shall appoint a number of scrutineers and tally clerks at the beginning of the election. These personnel shall perform their professed duties.

VI. The convener of the shareholders' meeting shall produce the ballots for the election of Directors, and assign the sequence number identical with the attendance pass number and mark down the number of entitled votes on the ballots. The ballots will be distributed to the shareholders who will attend the meeting or the proxies of the shareholders. Shareholders elected to cast vote by electronic means or correspondence shall follow the instructions of balloting as prescribed in the notice of Shareholders' Meeting.

VII. The Company's election of directors adopts the candidate nomination system. Shareholders shall elect the candidates from the list of director candidates and "candidates" column of the ballot shall be filled in with reference to the list of candidates. However, this does not apply to the exercise of shareholders' voting rights by electronic means.

VIII. A ballot shall be nullified if any of the following applies:

1. Using ballots not prepared by the convener for the election.
2. Putting a blank ballot into the ballot box or outside the ballot box.

3. The ballot is stained; the hand-writing is blurred that cannot be identified or marked for correction.
4. The candidate whose name is entered in the ballot does not conform to the list of director candidates.
5. Other words or marks are entered in addition to that of the candidate to be elected.
6. The number of candidates listed in the ballot exceeds the required number of candidates or the number of candidates to be elected. The total number of votes marked down on the ballots exceeds the total number of votes in the election.
7. The candidates marked on the ballots are neither the candidates for Director nor for Independent Director.

IX. The voting result of an election of directors shall be announced on the spot, including the names of those elected as directors, the number of votes they were elected and the list of unsuccessful directors and the number of votes they received.
The Company shall keep the ballots for the election specified in preceding paragraph for at least one year. In the event of legal proceedings instated pursuant to Article 189 of the Company Act by the Shareholders' Meeting, the ballots shall be kept until the conclusion of the proceedings.

X. The Company shall send a notice of election to office to each of the Director Elects

XI. The Directors-elect shall issue a statement of consent by the deadline stated in the notice of elected to office to express their intent of assuming office. Those who did not issue the statement of consent by the deadline shall be construed as unwilling to assume office and abandonment of their entitlement to office.

XII. Anything not covered by the Regulations shall be governed by the Company Act and other applicable laws.

XIII. The Regulations shall be subject to the resolution of the Shareholders' Meeting before enactment. The same procedure is applicable to any amendment thereto.
